THE STATE OF PROPERTY CRIME IN THE US
We recommend home security because it can prevent or limit the impact of property crimes. Property crime has a huge financial impact on people affected. In fact, burglary cost Americans about $3.4 billion in property loss in 2017 alone.¹

In our research, we also found that some states are hit harder than others.

These five states lost the most to burglary when you consider the average amount lost per 100,000 residents:²

- TEXAS
- GEORGIA
- NEVADA
- CALIFORNIA
- OHIO

Dollar Amount Stolen by State

- LOWEST BURGLARY TOTAL: $30,702
- HIGHEST BURGLARY TOTAL: $5,525,338
Most Common Item Stolen by State

Aside from vehicles, currency is the highest-value item stolen in 31 states.²
Residence Burglaries by Day and Night

Close to 64% of burglaries happen during the day when people are more likely to be away from home. ²
Residence Robberies and Burglaries by Month

Burglaries and robberies are much more common in December than any other month of the year.²

Methodology

ASecureLife.com analyzed data from the FBI’s Uniform Crime Reporting program spanning from 2011 to 2017 (the most current data available) to determine trends in burglary and robbery over time.